◆ Quantitative indicators of achievement of the FACT proeject:

- results of monitoring by the National Agencies;
- visitors to the project's website and other online platforms;
- numbers of participants involved in discussions and information sessions (workshops, seminars, peer reviews); follow-up measures;
- forensics tournaments held on a national and international level during the project's lifetime;
- voluntary acts, carried by the pupils;
- number of spectators at theatre performances of pupils;
- participation in public events;
- links with existing networks and transnational partners; transfer of information and know-how;
- visibility in the social media: released videos, published articles, press releases, interviews;
- number of successfully trained teachers/students;
- feedback from end-users, peers, policy-makers;
- impact on local/regional, national, transnational level.

◆ Intangible indicators of achievement of the FACT proeject: interviews, questionnaires, tests, observations and self-assessment mechanisms.

◆ Other criteria used by the Partnership to assess the level of achievement:

- degree of pupils' responsibility in reformulating their previous knowledge and personal experience into a new conceptual framework;
- contribution to the building of a microclimate of trust and respect;
- perceived value in cooperation;
- frequency of speech acts;
- originality of design and quality of handmade articles;
- argumentation in giving critical feedback;
- structured reasoning in essay writing;
- chosen strategy in completing the assigned tasks;
- level of independence from their teachers and/or peers while performing an individual task.

CUADERNO DE VIAJE Gráfica con los mejores momentos del viaje a Italia

La importancia del plano afectivo en los viajes de intercambio

El psicoterapeuta catalán Francesc Crespo tuvo la oportunidad de compartir el último viaje de Erasmus + con los alumnos de los Cabezuelos, y la experiencia no pudo ser más satisfactoria. Al término del viaje quiso dedicar una palabra a los chicos del centro, "que es lo que me sale del corazón: Jose Ma.: honradez/Ylenia: responsabilidad/Marina: emoción/Juan Jesús: atencio- /Isabel: sinceridad Manolo: valor. Y nada agradeceros a

"No sólo se aprende en clase, hay que intentar abrir ventanas al mundo"

El día que los Cabezuelos estábamos en un momento perfecto Erasmus +, que finalmente se va a vivir. Durante los tres años que han pasado desde Erasmus +, los alumnos han tenido la oportunidad de viajar a otros países, pero siempre se formaron en un grupo, pero también para aprender habilidades sociales y mejorar otras cosas. Para saber más sobre el programa Erasmus +, nos dirigimos a la oficina de Erasmus + de los Cabezuelos, donde nos encontramos con Manuel Borrego Riveriego, que nos explica cómo funciona el programa Erasmus + y qué es lo que se puede hacer en Erasmus + y qué es lo que se puede hacer en Erasmus +.

We are full of hope for a brighter day
When each of us will smile and say,
Come, join FACT and stay with us -
It changed our lives; we love Erasmus plus!
